Tom Halat, Tom's Farm Market and Greenhouses

Tom's Farm Market and Greenhouses • Huntley, Illinois

Tom's Farm Market began as a family-owned, open-air farm market more than 40 years ago. Expansion began in 1996 with the construction of an impressive retail farm market and greenhouses. They have since added 80,000 square feet for production and sale of the freshest vegetables, flowering annuals and perennials using the traditional Vail™ and the naturally ventilated Clear Sky™ greenhouses. Nexus worked closely with the Halat family to create the optimum retail and growing environments to help their family meet the needs of their NEXGeneration.

For generations, industry leaders have looked to Nexus for their most high-tech and innovative retail solutions. By continually adapting our designs to the changing market, we build the future one generation at a time.

Nexus offers a broad range of structures and retail-friendly products to meet your individual retail needs at an affordable price.
